

Lodge Ride Tsylos Lodge, British Columbia, Canada

Itinerary

For this one week riding holiday, you will be staying at the lodge.

Days are spent out on your horses exploring the valley, riding along the river, visiting old native graveyards, letting the horses eat wild salt grasses and enjoying lunch where there is a view or spot of interest.

The rides will start off slowly, but once the wranglers are happy that everyone is comfortable with their horses, you will be able to enjoy some faster riding.

There is one non-riding day, when you will have the opportunity to enjoy a boat trip along Chilko Lake.

You return to the lodge at the end of each day in time for icy cold drinks, a wonderful evening meal, time to chill out on the deck, or a relaxing soak in the hot tub viewing a million stars.

Accommodation

The lodge is the main gathering area at Tsylos and offers a warm, cosy, and relaxing atmosphere. It portrays the perfect wilderness log lodge with a big stone fireplace, large log beams and decks overlooking the Chilko River and valley.

The lodge hosts the dining area, the great room with the fireplace, a fully stocked bar, Jacuzzi, barbecue area, and big decks.

Single rooms are subject to availability and may have a shared bathroom.

Accommodation at Tsylos is in log cabins or suites. Each unit is set up for two persons and offers private bathrooms, comfy beds, gas fireplaces or a wood burning stove. Some rooms also have private decks and seating areas, but most guests choose to gather and relax in the main lodge. Daily maid services keep you supplied with fresh towels.
