

MONGOLIA - NOMAD TRAILS - BIG SKIES HORSE TRAIL

ITINERARY

Day 1

Return airport transfers are included.

Fights should arrive into Ulaanbaatar before 16:00 to allow time to transfer to the hotel and settle into your room before meeting your guide and the rest of the group for the ride briefing over dinner.

Flights can depart at any time on your day of departure.

Day 2

In the morning you may visit the Gandan lamasery, centre of the Buddhist revival in Mongolia. The Mongols follow the Tibetan version of Lamaism, the Dalai Lama being the theological leader.

Later you depart the city, and gradually the Mongolian landscape unfolds before your eyes. By the time you come to the Hadan Hoshuu steppes valley, there are no traces of civilization. Another world exists here as the nomads, with their horses, gers and livestock, make use of the summer pasture.

After a picnic lunch, continue your journey across the forested Zamtiin Pass and into the Upper Tuul River Valley until you reach your camp at Bosgo Meadows, beside the Tuul River. You will spend two nights in this camp.

Day 3

This morning you meet the horses and your horse guides. Your first day ride takes you on the southern side of the Tuul River, up the valleys and through forests, onto the ridges with stunning panoramic views of the southernmost Siberian forests.

A great time to get to know the horses that will carry you over the next few days. Return to Bosgo Meadows for a second night.

Overnight Bosog Meadows Camp.

Day 4

In the morning the entire camp is packed up and loaded onto the yak carts.

You ride north toward the Khentii Mountains, across the forested ridge into the next valley, the Baruunbayan. You separate from the yak carts to ride a scenic route to camp by the Baruunbayan River.

Day 5

Today is a full day's ride takes you to Gunjin Sum, a ruined temple hidden in the forest. Return to camp for a second night.

Overnight Baruunbayan River Camp.

Day 6

For the final time, camp is packed up onto the yak carts and you ride along with them for a while. Again you then separate from the yak carts to ride up the partly forested ridges. Most of the trees are larch, however on some of the ridges there are larger patches of pine and there is a real possibility to come across the rare Black-billed Capercaillie and the more common Black Grouse. Finally arrive at your ger camp, next to the Zuunbayan River, a tributary of the Tuul River.

You spend two nights at this camp and have a day riding up towards the tree line of the Khentii Mountains, with spectacular scenery and views in all directions.

Day 7

A day riding up towards the tree line of the Khentii Mountains, with spectacular scenery and views in all directions.

Overnight Zuunbayan River Camp.

Day 8

Today you say goodbye to the herders and their yak carts. You ride back to the Sharlburg Valley crossing the uppermost parts of the Tuul River before reaching the small ger camp at Jalman Meadows.

Day 9

A full day to enjoy the setting of Jalman Meadows Ger Camp. You can choose this day to do a full or half day ride. Alternatively you may prefer to relax in the ger library with books on Genghis Khan and contemporary Mongolia; or with a riverside sauna. It is also possible to replace the ride with a raft float downstream.

Overnight Jalman Meadows Wilderness Camp.

Day 10

During the morning you return back to Ulaanbaatar giving you chance to explore the capital city on your own. Lunch is to your own account. The local guide is available to direct you to where the points of interest are located.

In the evening you have a farewell dinner and attend a performance featuring folk and traditional Mongolian music, song, dance and contortion. Overnight at the hotel.

Overnight Ulaanbaatar Hotel.
