You stay for four nights at Verdemar with its rural ambiance and spacious exterior with a garden, swimming pool, fruit and olive trees, offering pleasant places to sit and relax. www.verdemar.net.

This is a renovated tavern with individual rooms and cottages around the gardens. There is a swimming pool (for use in the summer), fruit trees and plenty of places to relax and enjoy the countryside. Take meals either on the veranda or inside in the dining room. Day 2

Please note that it is sometimes necessary to substitute riding routes and use other hotels of similar or greater standard, but always with your best interests at heart.

For your first day's ride you explore the area of Cercal. You will ride to the chapel of Nossa Senhora das Neves from where you have a splendid view of the area you will be riding through during the week. After lunch, return to Casas Verdemar where you can enjoy the quiet of a typical 'monte alentajano'.

Overnight Casa Verdemar.

Day 3

After breakfast you set off into the hills of Cercal, close to the dam of Campilhas where you have lunch. The scenery is varied and interesting and after some trots and canters you return to Verdemar.

During dinner on the terrace taste some old and authentic recipes with natural produce of the region.

Overnight Casa Verdemar.

Day 4

Today you have a morning ride around the farm and into the hills of Cercal.

The afternoon is free to visit Vila Nova de Milfontes, a fishing village close to the sea with a very nice beach. This is a great destination if you would like to swim in the open ocean.

Overnight Casa Verdemar.

Day 5

Today you ride inland with many canters through eucalyptus and pine forests. Your driver meets you with lunch set out under the shade of the trees.

After lunch continue towards Quinta da Ortiga where you leave the horses before a short transfer (c.30mins) to your hotel Quinta de Malmedra where you have dinner and spend the night.

For those who are interested you are also close to some cultural attractions including the Castle of Santiago and Roman ruins of Mirobriga.

Today you ride in the direction of the ocean through pine forests and past the rice fields of the area, which in late summer prior to harvest are an astonishing colour of green. After lunch continue in the direction of Melides, an area of great peace and tranquillity.

The beach is about 3 km away so if you have enough energy left after the day's ride you can enjoy a swim before dinner in a local restaurant.

Overnight Hotel Vila Park. This is a modern, comfortable hotel where you can enjoy a swim in the pool.

Day 7

Your last ride takes you along the coast where there are long stretches of riding on the wide open beaches. Between June and mid September this ride is at dawn to avoid the holiday makers on the beach. It's a beautiful ride at first light as the sun rises over the dunes. While the horses rest you can swim in the sea before a picnic lunch. Afterwards ride through the dunes, returning to Hotel Vila Park for a farewell dinner and overnight.

Please note that the timing of the beach ride is dependent on tides and so you may ride this day in reverse and visit the beach in the afternoon.

Overnight Hotel Vila Park.

Day 8

You will be transferred to Lisbon airport. The transfer leaves after breakfast and takes about an hour and a half.

Please be aware that Lisbon is a very busy airport and there are often long queues for check-in, bag drop and passport control and so you are advised to arrive three hours before your flight.

You may wish to consider paying for "fast track" either through your airline or directly with the airport.
