

Los Alamos – New Year 2019, Spain

Itinerary

The planned itinerary for your New Year ride is as follows, however, please note that the weather might mean a change to these plans.

Sunday

Depart the UK on a morning flight to Gibraltar or Malaga, arriving by around midday. From the airport, you are transferred to Los Alamos.

Arrive at the villa at approximately 16:00 to a champagne reception lunch.

The normal pattern (weather permitting) is to set off at about 10am and stop for lunch at a local village bar and then ride on again in the afternoon. However, the introductory ride is usually shorter in duration. The order of the days might change.

Monday

After breakfast at the villa, meet at the stables (a short walk away from the villa) and be introduced to your horse, before setting off into the forest for your first ride. Today is a fairly quiet ride giving rider and horse the opportunity to get to know one another.

Tuesday (New Year's Eve)

Your first beach ride is planned today along the golden sands of Cape Trafalgar and El Palmar before a fun evening buffet and party at the villa.

Wednesday (New Year's Day)

Start the day a little later than normal with a champagne stirrup cup at the stables and then meander down through sweet smelling pine forest to the historic beaches of Cape Trafalgar. Stop for drinks at the thatched tavern of Las Dunas. Perhaps try one of their famous Wobbly Hot chocolates (made with Baileys) before heading back for a traditional New Year dinner with all the trimmings along with complimentary champagne and drinks.

Thursday

Today the horses have a rest day and you are driven to Jerez to visit the Royal School of Equestrian Art for a display of "Dancing Andalusian Horses", along with Carriage Driving.

During the morning you should have the opportunity to visit a nearby tack shop and wander around the School's carriage museum and stables before taking your seats for the start of the show at around midday. Afterwards have
